Cashier
Director of Finance
Director of Industry
General Administration Director

Each department has its own chief and is made up of several sub-divisions according to the size of the region.

4. Each Regional Management is composed and serviced by cooperatives. Within the organization of each cooperative are included the following:

Director
Personnel clerk
Head bookkeeper (he has several assistants, eg., cashier, statistician, planner, etc.)
Senior agriculturist (he has two assistant agriculturists)
Senior zoologist (he has two assistant zoologists)
Administrative clerk
Typist-stenographer
Procurement and sales manager
Cooperative mechanic

Each cooperative is a legal business unit capable of conducting transactions within its realm. However, detailed accountings and operational reports must be transmitted to the respective Regional Management which in turn makes a summary and sends it to the Ministry. Accountings are sent out monthly and operational reports every ten days.

5. A cooperative contains several farms or estates. Each farm or estate has its own manager, senior bookkeeper, calculator, storekeeper and workmen and farm hands according to the size of the cooperative.
6. Only the North and South Lodz Regional Managements worked with a profit in 1952; all others worked with a loss.
